BREAKFAST. "By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-sciected coos, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately-davored beverage which may save us many heavy doctor's bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until atrong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—See article in the Civil Service Gazette.

As the Order of the Day, the Appropriaion Bill came up for attention. that relating to permanent settlements and the first item was the amount settled on H. R. H. the Queen Dowager, viz., $12,000. Hon. Mr. Aholo, moved as an amend-ment, that the sum be increased to $16,000. His Excellency the Attorney-General, suggested that if the Hon, member desired such increase, it should be obtained by statute, not by amendment. His Excel-lency said that he had nothing to say against giving further allowance but wished any increase to be made according to law to avoid litigation in the future. His Excellency, the Attorney-General, said that the present Ministry had followed closely nearly all the figures of their pre-decessors in office and considered that, from the report of His Honor the Chief Justice, it would appear that the work of the Courts had greatly increased during the last bien-nial period, especially in the civil cases. The expenses of living, etc., had also greatly increased and more so in many of the native districts. He thought the proper administration of the law of the utmost importance, and the country should be prepared to pay a sum commensurate with the business done. He drew attention to the item of "expenses of witnesses in criminal cases" and stated that it was to supply the neces-sary expenses, such as food and lodging for such witneses as the Government required.
